1. INTRODUCTION

The Republic of South Africa Constitution Act 108 of 1996 requires the Municipality to encourage the participation of community members and community organisations in matters of local government. The Local Government Structures Act 117 of 1998 provides for the establishment of ward committees as formal mechanisms to give effect to this constitution obligation. Ward committees play a vital role in bridging the gap between the Community, the Municipality and its Council and also play an important role in;

- a) Enhancing participatory democracy
- b) Neighborhood and ward based planning, including the encouragement of communities to take charge of their own livelihoods
- c) Assist the municipality in service delivery improvement

- g) Assist in civic education

The Local Government Municipal Structures Act 117 of 1998, Section 73 (3) requires municipalities that have wards to make rules to regulate the procedure that they will follow to elect their ward committee members, with due cognizance to have women and a diversity of needs represented therein, and the frequency of meetings. Municipalities may also make administrative arrangements to enable ward committees to perform their functions and exercise their powers effectively; hence this policy.
