- 7.10. A separate area with metal bins or canvas laundry bags must be provided for the storage of dirty articles used in connection with an accommodation establishment, pending removal to be laundered and if articles used in connection with an accommodation establishment are cleaned on the premises, facilities for the washing, drying and ironing must be provided.
- 7.11. An area for the storage of furniture and equipment and an area for the storage of clean bed and other linen, towels, blankets, pillows and other articles used in connection with an accommodation establishment, must be provided;

- 7.12. All –
- i. walls and ceilings must have a smooth finish and be painted with a washable paint, or have some other approved finish;
  - ii. floor surfaces of the kitchen, scullery, laundry, bathroom, shower, ablution room, toilet and sluice room must be constructed of concrete or some other durable, impervious material brought to a smooth finish; and
  - iii. floor surfaces of every habitable room must be constructed of an approved material;
- 7.13. The following facilities must be provided for people who are employed and also reside on the premises:
- i. Sleeping quarters equipped with a bed, mattress and locker which comply with the provisions of paragraphs 7.1 to 7.3 for each employee; and
  - ii. if employees are not provided with meals in the accommodation establishment, food preparation and dining facilities that comply with the provisions of paragraph 7.4.
- 7.14. Adequate changing facilities must be provided for non-resident employees;
- 7.15. Adequate ablution and sanitary facilities, which comply with the provisions of paragraphs 7.5 and 7.6, must be provided for resident and non-resident employees;
- 7.16. An adequate refuse holding area must be provided, including a refuse receptacle with a close-fitting lid in every room used for sleeping and an approved refuse removal system must be maintained;
- 7.17. All walls, floors and roofs must be constructed in a manner which prevents wind or rain entering an accommodation establishment or dampness entering the interior surfaces of any wall or floor;
- 7.18. All accesses to an accommodation establishment must have a door which when closed, prevents the wind or rain entering the premises; and
- 7.19. All windows must be constructed in a manner that prevents rain entering the accommodation establishment when the windows are closed and prevents the diminishing of the natural illumination of the room.

8. Duties of operators of accommodation establishments

Every person who conducts an accommodation establishment must –

- 8.1. keep the premises and all furniture, fittings, appliances, equipment, containers, curtains, covers, hangings and other soft furnishings, table linen, bed linen, and other bedding, towels and cloths of whatever nature used in connection with the accommodation establishment, in a clean, hygienic and good condition at all times;
- 8.2. clean and wash any bed linen, towel, bath mat or face cloth after each use by a different person;
- 8.3. take adequate measures to eradicate pests on the premises;
- 8.4. provide a container made of a durable and impervious material, equipped with a close-fitting lid, in every toilet used by females;
- 8.5. provide towel rails or hooks in every bathroom and in every room in which there is a wash-hand basin or shower;
- 8.6. store all dirty linen, blankets, clothing, curtains and other articles used in connection with an accommodation establishment in the manner provided in paragraph 7.10;
- 8.7. store all clean linen, towels, blankets, pillows and other articles used in connection with the accommodation establishment in the manner provided in paragraph 7.11;
- 8.8. keep all sanitary, ablution and water supply fittings in good working order;
- 8.9. keep every wall, surface and ceiling, unless constructed of materials not intended to be painted, painted at the intervals to ensure that the area painted, remains clean and in a good state of repair; and
- 8.10. handle refuse in the manner provided in paragraph 7.16.
- 8.11. ensure that he or she has waste storage facilities which comply with the By-Laws on Waste Management.

9. Requirements relating to water and sanitation

A landlord or landlady must –

- 9.1. Provide to persons using the accommodation –

- i. a regular supply of potable water which is sufficient for their use; and
  - ii. latrines which are sufficient in number and capacity;
- 9.2. Ensure the proper removal and disposal of household refuse at least once a week;
- 9.3. Ensure the proper storage, removal and disposal of faecal matter, except where pit latrines or a method for the adequate treatment of such matter by enzymatic or chemical process;
- 9.4. Ensure that bathrooms contains a shower or bath and a hand basin, fitted with taps that provide hot and cold running potable water at all times;

10. Preparation and serving of food

- 10.1. A landlord or landlady who prepares or serves food on the premises for consumption by guests, irrespective of whether it is paid for separately or included in the cost of the accommodation, must comply with the provisions of the Regulations Governing General Hygiene Requirements for Food Premises and the Transport of Food published under Government Notice No. R.918 of 30 July 1999, as amended by Government Notice No. R.1125 of 8 August 2003, made in terms of section 35 read together with section 40 of the Health Act, 1977 (Act 63 of 1977).
- 10.2. A landlord or landlady may only prepare or serve food on the premises if he/she is in possession of a certificate of acceptability issued by the Council in terms of the regulations referred to in paragraph 10.1 above.
- 10.3. A landlord or landlady who wants to apply for a certificate of acceptability referred to in paragraph 10.2 above, must apply for it on an application form as set out in Schedule 2.
- 10.4. The completed application form must be submitted to the office of the Municipal Manager.
- 10.5. If the Council grants the certificate of acceptability to the landlord or landlady, it must issue to that person a certificate similar to that contained in Schedule 3.

11.Appointment, responsibility and powers of officials

- 11.1. Without limiting the application of any other law or a person responsible for carrying out the provisions of such law, the person or persons responsible for carrying out the provisions of these By-laws within the Emakhazeni Local Municipality are the Building Inspector, Environmental Practitioner, Health Officer and/ or any other person appointed by the Council in terms of sections 22, 24 or 25 of the Health Act, 1977.
- 11.2. The persons referred to in paragraph 11.1 have such powers and duties as set out in the Act and regulations made in terms of the Act.

12.Offences and Penalties

If a person -

- a) Contravenes section 57 of the Health Act, 1977, then said section will apply;
- b) Contravenes the Regulations, then the penalties as prescribed in the Regulations will apply.
- c) Contravenes paragraph 6(1) of these By-Laws or supplies false or misleading information to the Council, he or she commits an offence and is, on conviction, liable to a fine or in default of payment, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 6 months, or to such imprisonment without the option of a fine, or to both such fine and imprisonment and in the case of a successive or continuing offense, to a fine for every day such offense continues, or in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 6 months.

13.Notice of compliance

- 13.1. If a person fails to comply with the requirements contained in paragraphs 7, 8 or 9, the Council may serve a notice of compliance on that person.
- 13.2. The notice of compliance must state the following –
- i. The name and residential or postal address of the affected person;
  - ii. The requirement which has not been complied with;

- iii. The measures required to remedy the situation;
  - iv. That the person must, within a specified period, take the measures to comply with the notice and complete the measures before a specified date;
  - v. The person may, within 14 days from the date of the notice, make written representations in the form of a sworn statement or affirmation to the Council at a specified place.
- 13.3. When Council considers measures or periods envisaged in paragraph 13.2 (iii) or (iv), it must have regard to the principles and objects of these by-laws, the nature of the non-compliance, and other relevant factors.
- 13.4. If a person does not make representations in terms of paragraph 13.2 (v) and the person fails to take the measures before the date contemplated in paragraph 13.2 (iv), he or she commits an offence and the Council may, irrespective of any fines which may be imposed in terms of paragraph 12, also act in terms of paragraph 13.6.
- 13.4.1. If representations are not lodged within the time contemplated in terms of paragraph 13.2 (v), it will not be considered, except if the person has shown good reason and the Council condones the late lodging of the representations.
- 13.4.2. Council must consider timely representations and any response thereto by an official.
- 13.4.3. The Council may, by its own choice, conduct further investigations to verify facts and the results of such investigation must be made available to the permit holder, who must be given an opportunity to make a further response if he or she so wishes and the Council must also consider the further response.
- 13.4.4. After considering the representations and any responses and further responses, the Council must make an order in writing and serve a copy of it on the person.

- 13.4.5. The order referred to in paragraph 13.5.4, must confirm, alter or set aside the notice of compliance and where such notice is confirmed or altered, Council must inform the person that he or she must, within the period specified in the order, discharge the obligations set out in the order and that failure to do so constitutes an offence.
- 13.4.6. If a person fails to discharge the obligations in paragraph 13.5.5, he or she commits an offence and the Council may, irrespective of any fines which may be imposed, also act in terms of paragraph 13.6.
- 13.5. Council may take such measures as it deems necessary to remedy the situation and the cost thereof must be paid to Council in accordance with paragraph 15.
- 13.6. If a landlord or landlady fails to comply with a compliance notice, the Council may immediately withdraw the permit.

14. Costs

- 14.1. If a person fails to take the measures required of him or her by a notice of compliance contemplated in paragraph 13, the Council may, subject to paragraph 14.3 recover as a debt, all costs incurred as a result of Council acting in terms of paragraph 13.6, from that person and any or all of the following persons:
- i. the owner of the land, building or premises; or
  - ii. the person or occupier in control of the land, building or premises or any person who has or had a right to use the land at the time when the situation came about.
- 14.2. The costs recovered must be reasonable and may include, without being limited to, costs relating to labour, water, equipment, administrative and overhead costs incurred by the Council under paragraph 13.6.
- 14.3. If more than one person is liable for costs incurred, the liability must be apportioned as agreed among the persons concerned according to the degree to which each was responsible for the emergency resulting from their respective failures to take the required measures.

15. Authentication and service of notices and other documents

- 15.1. A notice issued by the Council in terms of these by-laws is deemed to be duly issued if it is signed by an official authorized by Council.
- 15.2. Any notice or other document that is served on a person in terms of these By-Laws is regarded as having been duly served –
- i. when it has been delivered to that person personally;
  - ii. when it has been left at that person's place of residence or business in the Republic with a person apparently over the age of 16 years;
  - iii. when it has been posted by registered or certified mail to that person's last known residential or business address in the Republic and an acknowledgment of the posting thereof from the postal service is obtained;
  - iv. if that person's address in the Republic is unknown, when it has been served on that person's agent or representative in the Republic in the manner provided by paragraphs 15.2 (i), (ii) or (iii);
  - v. if that person's address and agent or representative in the Republic is unknown, when it has been posted in a conspicuous place on the land or business premises to which it relates;
  - vi. in the event of a body corporate, when it has been delivered at the registered office of the business premises of such body corporate;
  - vii. when it has been delivered, at the request of that person, to his or her e-mail address.
- 15.3. Service of a copy is deemed to be service of the original.
- 15.4. When any notice or other document is served on the owner, occupier or holder of any property, or right in any property, it is sufficient if that person is described in the notice or other document as the owner, occupier or holder of the property or right in question, and it is not necessary to name that person.

16. Appeal

- 16.1. a person whose rights are affected by a decision of an official of the Council acting in terms of these By-Laws may appeal against that decision by giving written notice of the appeal and reasons to the municipal manager within 21 days of the date of the notification of the decision.
- 16.2. The appeal authority contemplated in paragraph 16.3 must consider the appeal, and vary, confirm or revoke the decision, but no such variation or revocation of a decision may detract from any right that may have accrued as a result of the decision.
- 16.3. When the appeal is against a decision taken by –
  - i. a staff member other than the Municipal Manager, the Municipal Manager is the appeal authority;
  - ii. the Municipal Manager, the Executive Mayor is the appeal authority; or
  - iii. a political structure or political office bearer or a Councillor, the Council is the appeal authority.
- 16.4. The appeal authority must commence with an appeal within six weeks of receipt of the notice of appeal and decide the appeal within a reasonable time.

17. Saving and transitional provision

A person who, at the date of commencement of these By-Laws, owns or operates an accommodation establishment without a permit, must, within a period of six months, comply with the provisions of these By-Laws.

18. Repeal of By-Laws

The provisions of any by-laws previously promulgated by the Council or by any of the disestablished municipalities now incorporated in the Emakhazeni Local Municipality, are hereby repealed as far as they relate to matters provided for in these By-laws, and insofar as it has been made applicable to the municipality by the authorization for the execution of powers and functions in terms of section 84(3) of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, Act 117 of 1998.

19.Short title

These By-Laws are called the Emakhazeni By-Laws on Accommodation Establishments.
